Paper CHASE

It was hard to know where to start with choosing wallpapers for this page. I could have filled the whole magazine 10 times over there are so many fabulous wall coverings out there. Some brilliant textured ones from Arte, panoramic murals from Designers Guild and just about anything from the Romanian company Mind The Gap, which mixes pattern and colour on another level. If you are a Gucci fan you can indulge in the heron wall panels inspired by its ready-to-wear collections, or go to Graham & Brown for a wealth of keenly priced options. @marianne_cotterill
